Introduction

A PRINTABLE COMPANION TO THE MONTH 11 module. Build the winter routine that keeps you mobile.

CHAPTER 1

How to use this workbook

PRINT IT. PUT IT ON YOUR NIGHTSTAND OR BATHROOM mirror. Fill it in over the next 7 days.

Winter is a four-month event. The bodies that come through it mobile are the ones whose owners built a small daily routine in November and stuck with it. This workbook helps you build that routine.

Bring it to your next session.

CHAPTER 2

Where You Are Today — Pre-Winter Body Check

TIME OF YEAR: [] EARLY WINTER (NOV-DEC) /
[] Mid-winter (Jan-Feb) / [] Late winter (Feb-Mar)

Outside temperature where you live right now:
____°F

Rate winter stiffness signals (0 = none, 10 = severe):

Morning stiffness (first 10 min of
day) [____]
Joints that feel "cold" or "achy" without injury [____]
Hands or feet that feel stiff when waking [____]
Lower back tightness on cold mornings [____]
Old injuries that "flare" in cold [____]
Slow to warm up even after moving for a while [____]
General feeling of "stiff" all winter [____]

Which body areas feel worse in cold weather specifically? Circle all that apply:

neck / shoulders / mid-back / low back / hips /
knees / hands / feet / jaw

The morning routine I currently do (be honest — none, just coffee, brief stretching, etc.):

Three honest sentences about how my body handles winter:

2.

Reflection Prompts

PROMPT 1: THINK BACK TO LAST WINTER. WHAT was the tweak, the strain, the “I shouldn’t have done that” moment? When did it happen — morning? After being cold-still? When the cold made you cut a warm-up short?

Prompt 2: How does winter affect your mood and energy, separate from your body? Are the two connected — does the stiffness contribute to feeling sluggish, or vice versa?

Prompt 3: What's the longest you've ever held a morning movement habit? What made you stop? What would it take to hold it through this whole winter?

CHAPTER 4

Your Winter Daily Routine

LOCK THIS IN. SPECIFIC. TRACKABLE.

Which morning warm-up will I do?

- [] Option A — In-bed warmup (ankle circles, knees to chest, spinal twist, arms overhead, neck rotations after sitting up)
- [] Option B — Get-up-and-move (marching, arm circles, shoulder shrugs, slow squats, forward fold)
- [] Custom: _____

When in the morning will I do it? _____

Will I add the hot shower protocol? [Yes / No / Sometimes]

My evening minimum-effective-dose stretch (10 min) happens at: _____

My weekly walking target: _ minutes per day,
___ days per week

CHAPTER 5

CHAPTER 6

End-of-Week Reflection

RE-RATE WINTER STIFFNESS SIGNALS (0-10):

Morning stiffness	[____]	(Day
1: [____])
Joints aching	[____]	(Day
1: [____])
Slow to warm up	[____]	(Day

General "stiff" feeling	[____]	(Day
1: [____])

What changed in 7 days?

Which piece worked best for me?

- [] Morning warm-up
- [] Hot shower protocol
- [] Evening 10-min stretch

- [] Walking outside

Which day did I miss? Why?

Recommitment for next week:

CHAPTER 7

Try this for 7 days

IF YOU DO NOTHING ELSE FROM THIS WORKBOOK, try this:

The in-bed warmup before you even sit up. Every morning. For one week.

That's it. Three to four minutes. Lying down.

Ankle circles. Knees to chest. Spinal twist. Arms overhead. (Then neck rotations after you sit up.)

If you do nothing else and just do that, you'll feel a difference in how the first hour of your day goes by day 4-5.

Bring this workbook to your next session. We'll talk about what's working and where to push deeper.
